INWESTOR Gazeta Inwestycyjna is one of the biggest magazines in Poland which describes investment-related undertakings in Polish agglomerations. We both present most recent projects and report the progress of those already launched. Much attention is paid to infrastructure, construction and good architecture as well as problems related to revitalisation.

JANUARY 2007 On 13th January Investpress publishing house begins its activity.

FEBRUARY 2007 The first Investor issue, with 16 pages, is released in Poznań.

JUNE 2007 The magazine's volume is increased to 24 pages. English version is created.

NOVEMBER 2007 The Wrocław branch is established. Volume: 32 pages. Edition: 6,000 copies.

MAY 2008 The Branch in Katowice is created. The magazine contains 52 pages. Edition: 8,000 copies.

FEBRUARY 2009 The editorial office changes headquarters. We move from Czerwonak near Poznań to a modern A-class office building in Poznań - PGK Centrum.

MARCH 2009 A new company is founded Investpress sp. z o.o. We establish ourselves in Warsaw. The graphic layout is changed. The magazine's volume is already 68 pages.

SEPTEMBER 2009 The new Internet portal kicks off. The volume is increased to 84 pages.

NOVEMBER 2009 We appear in Cracow and Tricity. The magazine contains now 100 pages.

Gazeta INWESTOR was awarded the title „Investment Hit” in 2008. The award is granted by poznanskie-nieruchomosci.com portal.
